Welcome certificate

Verified 23 février 2021 - Legal and Administrative Information Directorate (Prime Minister)

A foreigner who wishes to come to France for a tourist stay of less than 3 months must present a proof of accommodation. This document is called acceptance certificate established by the person who will welcome him at his home during the stay in France. The request is made in the town hall. The certificate is issued if the host meets certain conditions. In case of refusal, appeals are possible.
