RSA young active

Verified 01 avril 2022 - Legal and Administrative Information Directorate (Prime Minister)

A young person between 18 and 25 years of age, whether French or foreigners, who has a certain period of professional activity may benefit from the RSA young active under certain conditions. The amount depends on the resources and composition of the household. To obtain the RSA, it is necessary to make a 1st application and then update the situation quarterly. The procedure varies according to the membership fund (Caf or CMSA).
