Can we ask for a review of the amount of the Apa?

Verified 20 septembre 2019 - Directorate of Legal and Administrative Information (Prime Minister), National Solidarity Fund for Autonomy (CNSA)

It is possible to request a reassessment of your needs (revision of your aid plan and consequent on the amount of your Apa), if you change:

- your personal or financial situation,
- or the personal situation of your close caregiver.

This request must be made:

- by the beneficiary of the Apa itself,
- or his legal representative,
- or by the next of kin.

Depending on the circumstances, the request for a review may be dealt with as a matter of urgency or in accordance with the procedure and time limits laid down for a 1st request.

In the event of a reduction in the amount of the Apa, it is possible to challenge this decision.

An amicable appeal must first be brought, and then a contentious appeal can be brought.

Prior administrative action (Rapo)

If you challenge a decision on the Apa, you can form a prior administrative appeal by contacting the department by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt.

This appeal must be made within 2 months of notification of the contested decision.

Litigation

An appeal may be brought against the decision of the prior administrative appeal. Such contentious appeal must be filed with the Administrative Court.

- Administrative Tribunal ↗ \(https://www.conseil-etat.fr/tribunaux-cours/la-carte-des-juridictions-administratives\)

You must file your appeal within 2 months of notification of the contested decision.

Then, if you wish, you can challenge the decision of the administrative court by appeal to the Council of State \(https://www.service-public.fr/particuliers/vosdroits/F2496?lang=en\).
