Income tax: how do i indicate a change of address?

Verified 01 janvier 2022 - Legal and Administrative Information Directorate (Prime Minister)

If you have moved, you must inform the tax department and indicate this on your tax return.

Online

At any time

You can inform the taxes of your move at any time.

You can make the declaration from your Personal space on the site imp.gov.fr or by using the online address change service:

By mail

At any time

Contact the public finance centre on which your address depends at 1st January of the taxation year.

Enter your old address and new address, including your tax number, first name, date and place of birth, telephone number.

On your tax return

You moved in the year 2020

If you file your tax return on paper, the pre-printed address is not the address of your home at 1st January 2020.

You must therefore provide the exact address and the date of the move.

You changed your address after January 1, 2021

If you file your tax return on paper, you must provide your current address and the date of the move. You will receive tax letters at your new address.
